Theme Song

Revived To Go - George Gordan

1.

As soldiers of the cross,
We often suffer loss,
Injured on this rugged way,
But we're committed to the fight
As Jesus leads us by His light,
'Till there's victory one day.

Chorus

I'm revived by His pow'r,
Every minute, every hour,
I'll let the whole world know:
I'm a brand-new man
In the potter's hand,
I'm ready, Lord, to go.

2.

I'm committed to the cause;
We have no time to pause.
There're souls we've got to save!
Be determined as we go:
The time's at hand,
the world must know,
And be saved from
Christless graves.

Chorus

I'm revived by His pow'r,
Every minute, every hour,
I'll let the whole world know:
I'm a brand-new man
In the potter's hand,
I'm ready, Lord, to go.

3.

Christ is coming very soon!
Let's make our way to the upper room;
Revival will take place.
Lives will be revitalized,
The world will be evangelized,
Empowered by His Grace.

Chorus

I'm revived by His pow'r,
Every minute, every hour,
I'll let the whole world know:
I'm a brand-new man
In the potter's hand,
I'm ready, Lord, to go.
(X2)

I'm ready, Lord, to go.
Ready, Lord, to go!

Union

We have come today, in the name of our Lord, to inaugurate this new term in the North Caribbean Conference of Seventh-day Adventist, and to install the officers that through prayer and God's leading have been chosen to serve you in the Spirit of the Lord. You, who are witnesses of this new beginning, will you support them in the task we are laying on their shoulders today?

Congregation

By God's grace, we will do so.

Union

Pastor President, this is a special ceremony for your personal dedication to the Lord and this task. At this sacred moment, do you accept that the call to service has come from the Lord, and are you willing to allow the Holy Spirit to guide you to the source of all wisdom in order to do this God-given task, and are you willing to be guided by the Holy Spirit to fulfill your responsibilities?

Conference President

I pray for the infilling of the Holy Spirit, and want to be led by Him at all times.

Union

Pastor Secretary, humbly trusting in God's grace, do you promise to give yourself unreservedly to the work of the Lord, and to be a voice and strength for the administrative team by fulfilling your duties as Executive Secretary of the North Caribbean Conference?

Conference Secretary

By God's grace, I promise to allow His Spirit to be my guide and faithfully fulfill my duties, and always support my fellow officers of the North Caribbean Conference.

Union

Treasurer, do you recognize that you cannot fulfill the work to which the Lord has called you without the constant presence of the Holy Spirit, and is it your determination, by the grace of God, to be a faithful steward of the finance of the church that is entrusted to you?

Conference Treasurer

I pray for my brethren to keep me in their prayers, in order to be a faithful steward for the Lord, and a constant support for His Church and my fellow officers.

Conference Officers

By God's grace, we commit ourselves to total loyalty to the Lord and His church, doing all that is in our power to bring honor and glory to His name in our administrative responsibilities. We pledge to lead with integrity. We promise to do our best to keep the church united, and we are committed to prepare a people for the coming of the Lord.

Union

Are you committed, and do you promise before God and the church here gathered, that you will always accept the teachings of the Bible, and will always follow the principles of the Spirit of Prophecy, and respect the Policies of the Church?

Conference Administrators

We want to do all we can do, based on Spiritual principles, and guided by the word of the Lord and the Spirit of Prophecy. We pledge allegiance to the Lord and promise faithfulness to His Church and her principles.

Union

Do you understand the principles of shared leadership, and is it your determination to always remember that leadership in the Adventist

Litany Cont' d

Church is a shared leadership, and that leaders must respect and support their fellow leaders at all levels of church organization?

Conference Officers

We do realize that we must lead together, and in the Spirit of the Lord.

Union

In precepts and practice, do you realize that you will have influence on those you are called to lead, and therefore, do you promise before God, to be faithful, respectful, compassionate, and a living example to God's Church?

Conference Administrators

So help us God, we will.

Union

Are you determined to dedicate all your efforts to the growth of the Church through vigorous evangelism, be supportive to her educational system, and actively be involved in mentoring others to follow your example?

Conference Officers

So help us God, we promise to do the best of our to build up God's kingdom.

Union

As members and delegates here assembled, you have heard the good intentions of your leaders, do you therefore promise to pray for them, respect them, and be kind to them?

Congregation

We want a strong and undivided Church, and by God's grace, we promise to be imitators of all the good things we see in our leaders. We are committed to pray for them, and when necessary, in love, call their attention to what we perceive to be a deviation from their promises to be exemplary and dedicated leaders.
